[illegible]

[illegible] There were five clergymen [illegible] the Rev. Dr. [illegible], of the Presbyterian persuasion, officiating at the church and the grave. The coffin was [illegible] with many [illegible] Federal officers and soldiers witnessed the [illegible] but there was no interference on their part.

[illegible] a point five miles beyond Suffolk [illegible] Petersburg yesterday afternoon. From this source we learn that the enemy at Suffolk was reinforced last week by an entire brigade and a full company of field artillery. The number of Federals now at Suffolk and vicinity is estimated at 30,000 by their own men, but we think no doubt this is an exaggeration. It is also argued that the Yankees there throw there hint that this force is to move against Petersburg, while the Yankee forces at Newbern are to be quietly removed for the purpose of operating simultaneously against Weldon. It is hardly probable that the Federal Generals would make their plans known, but sometimes contemplated movements leak out despite all the caution of commanders.

From Murfreesboro'.—The Murfreesboro' Rebel Banner of the 23d has the following paragraphs:

One by one the main avenues of railway and telegraphic communication which we enjoyed before the advent of Abolition rule, are being re-opened. The railroad line connecting this place and Huntsville, Ala., has been re-opened, and trains are running daily.

The train that left this place on Thursday night encountered obstructions near Normandy Station, and was thrown from the track. The locomotive was plunged into the woods, and over one hundred and fifty yards of the rail tore up.

The disaster is only serious from the trouble it affords our military and railroad authorities in the matter of transportation. We understand the Railroad bridge to Chattanooga will be in full working order to-day.

One of the most hopeful signs of progress in this department of the army is the complete and efficient reorganization of the cavalry wing. This entire branch of the service has been divided into two wings, commanded respectively by Generals Wheeler and Wharton. The former commander already has charge of all the mounted troops in the advance, and from his orders it appears that he intends making a thorough re-organization of the forces under his command.

We have every reason to congratulate the public and the troops upon this change. At last it is evident that our numerous cavalry forces are to be brought under proper discipline. They have too long been under the most lax and inefficient rule. Gallant and enterprising as they may be, they have lacked a head. Now it comes to them. They have only to organize and report for duty, and Gen. Wheeler, who is a distinguished and efficient commander, will give all of the mounted men ample opportunities to distinguish themselves.

Middle Tennessee.—The Chattanooga Rebel says that in this section the movements of the military are necessarily involved in much of that sort of mystery which generally attends a campaign in embryo. As yet, but little has been accomplished by our forces, excepting in the way of subsistence. There is no doubt that our occupation of the rich basin of the Cumberland and Duck rivers have furnished us with supplies which are closely estimated at from three to four month's rations for fifty thousand men.

A woman near New Bedford Conn., opposed her husband's proposal to enlist. He enlisted, however, and she yielded apparently. They shortly after took a walk together. For a long time both kept silent on the subject that was nearest the thoughts of each. Finally the wife spoke: "I suppose you have made up your mind," said she; "but I want you to understand that if you ever run I will never live with you."

While we strike for our [illegible] and Thy altars be with us,
For in striking for them, Lord, we strike, too, for Thee.
We strike 'gainst the infidel horde that oppose us—
That dishonor thy Gospel and ignore Thy high will—
That despise thy Revealings*—O Father! strike with us,
And strike till our infidel tyrants be still!
Chorus—Strike for us—strike with us; we bow to Thy will,
Strike, Lord, till the infidel tyrants be still.

CONSCRIPTION.

THOUSANDS IN THE CONFEDERATE STATES, owing to the different laws and exemption bills passed by the last two sessions of the Confederate States Congress, are so mystified as to their real status that they know not what course to pursue. We advise all who really believe themselves subject to the law to report immediately at the respective camps appointed for the enrollment of Conscripts in the different States. To those who believe themselves exempt, we would respectfully say, that on securing our fee, which is Five Dollars, we will furnish them the law bearing on their cases and every additional information which we have gleaned from the action of the authorities in parallel cases, and we are prepared to take all the responsibility of such advice. We will do nothing but a legitimate business. Those whom we find are really liable, we will inform accordingly. Those who are not (and there are thousands in every State who are not) we will give them our advice with the law bearing upon their cases.

Having every facility, we are prepared to give every information regarding any other business connected with the army.

Owing to the heavy expense incurred in procuring this information, we will notice no communication unaccompanied with our retaining fee of Five Dollars.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, IN ORDER TO STOP, IF POSSIBLE, the wicked system of speculation which is blighting the land, and prevent the production of famine in the midst of plenty, the Legislature of North Carolina, by a joint resolution thereof, ratified on the 22d day of this month, (November,) have authorized me to lay an embargo upon the exportation from the State of certain articles of prime necessity, except to certain persons and for certain purposes:

Now therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my Proclamation, forbidding all persons, for the space of thirty days from the date hereof, from carrying beyond the limits of the State any salt, bacon, pork, beef, corn, meal, flour, potatoes, shoes, leather, hides, cotton cloth, and yarn and woolen cloth. The following persons are alone to be exempted from this prohibition, viz:

All Quarter Masters and Commissaries, Agents of the Confederate Government and of any State of the Confederacy, exhibiting proper evidence of their official character; also all Agents of any county, district, town or corporation of other States, who shall exhibit satisfactory proof of their authority to purchase such articles in behalf of such town, county, district or corporation for public uses, or for distribution at cost and transportation, and not for re-sale or profit; also all persons who may make oath before the nearest Justice of the Peace that the articles purchased are for their own private use, and not for re-sale before they are removed; also all persons, non-residents, who may have bought such articles before the date hereof. The exception is to extend to salt made by non-residents on the sea coast and in their own works, and to cargoes entering any of our ports from abroad.

Any of said articles that may be stopped in transitu from our borders are to be confiscated to the use of the State.

Until further orders the Colonels of Militia in the different counties, are enjoined to see that this proclamation is enforced.

Not intending or desiring to prevent the people of our sister States from sharing with our own citizens whatever we can spare, but to repress speculation so far as may be possible, I earnestly appeal to all good citizens to aid and sustain me in the enforcement of this proclamation for the common good.

{ L. S. } In witness whereof, Zebulon B. Vance, Governor, Captain General, and Commander-in-Chief hath signed these presents, and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this 26th day of November, A. D., 1862, and in the year of our Independence the 87th.

Z. B. VANCE.

R. H. Battle,
Private Secretary.

HOTELS.

EXCHANGE HOTEL,

HILLSBORO' STREET, RALEIGH, N. C.

HAVING PURCHASED THE PROPERTY IN THE City of Raleigh, recently occupied by Major Phillips, and known as "Phillips' Hotel," I have opened it for the accommodation of the public under the name and style of EXCHANGE HOTEL.

The extensive improvement now going on, and which will be completed as soon as possible—the erection of new buildings and the thorough overhauling and renovating of old ones—will render the Exchange convenient and comfortable; and the proprietor is determined that its management and internal arrangements shall be such as to compare favorably with the first class hotels of the country.

The table will be abundantly supplied with the best the market and the country affords, and no efforts or expense will be spared to render the house in every respect a comfortable home to its guests.

The Exchange is located on Hillsboro' street, some two hundred yards west of the Capitol.

Thirty to forty large and commodious rooms will be ready for occupation by the assembling of the Legislature.

A liberal share of public patronage is respectfully solicited. Give us a call and we will endeavor to treat you well.

Omnibuses will be in attendance at the cars to convey passengers to and from the Exchange.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Wednesday, Dec. 3.

The Speaker called the House to order at [illegible] o'clock.

Prayer by Rev. T. S. [illegible].

Tuesday's Journal was read.

In accordance with notice heretofore given the Speaker (Mr. Gilliam) resigned the duties of the chair and returned his thanks for the [illegible] kindness and forbearance of the House during his service, and then vacated the chair.

Mr. Horton introduced a resolution of thanks to Mr. Gilliam, for the ability and impartiality with which he had discharged the duties as Speaker of the House. Unanimously passed.

Mr. Amis nominated Hon. R. S. Donnell, of Beaufort, for Speaker.

Mr. Walser nominated Hon. W. E. Mann, of Pasquotank.

Mr. Williams, of Nash, nominated Hon. J. G. Shepard, of Cumberland.

Mr. Shepard requested his friend to withdraw his name.

The House voted for Speaker. Those voting for Mr. Mann changed their votes for Mr. Donnell.

Mr. Love, from the Committee to superintend the same, reported Mr. Donnell duly elected. Whereupon Messrs. Shepard and Amis conducted Mr. Donnell to the chair, from which Mr. D. returned his thanks for the honor conferred, in a neat and appropriate address.

On motion of Mr. Shober, a message was sent to the Senate, informing that body of Mr. Gilliam's resignation, and the election of Mr. Donnell as Speaker of the House.

A message was received from the Senate announcing the Senate branch of the joint Committee, on so much of the Governor's message as relates to [illegible].

By Mr. [illegible], from the Committee on [illegible], House bill No. 22 to alter the County line between Jackson and Transylvania Counties, recommending its passage.

Mr. Amis said that he was for bearing down at once upon the practice of taking the necessaries of life at this time for the manufacture of liquor. He had heard of distillers who were professing to be [illegible] and [illegible] it in small quantities and would fill up with grain, even under the [illegible] now in force.

Mr. Fowle said that he was as anxious as his friend (Mr. Amis) to have the distillery of grain &c. stopped, but under the ordinance of the Convention, there were certain articles [illegible], and he thought it but just to allow such as had made arrangements under the ordinance, to be advised of the provisions of this bill. The motion was [illegible].

On Mr. Amis' motion the bill was so amended as to go into force on the 15th Dec. inst.

During the session the House voted at the hours designated for Public Treasurer and Solicitor for the 9th Judicial Circuit.

Mr. Allison reported the result of the election of Public Treasurer, Mr. Worth having received 79 and Mr. Courts 61 votes. Mr. Worth was declared duly elected.
